DAZZLE THE WORLD WITH YOUR UNIQUE IDENTITY

HIGH SENSORY INTELLIGENCE + WOMEN OF COLOR

A Note From Dr. Michele Mercer

As a woman of color navigating decades in corporate America at global iconic brands, I have experienced the subtleties and inequalities that can exist; being othered, being the only, and being in doubt. Combined with high sensory intelligence, a heightened sense of creative agency, endless curiosity, and having significant depth of intuitive processing, ignites a dynamic feeling of inner complexity that cultivates an expansive processing range far beyond surface level reality. Finding a sense of belonging where this intersectionality and kaladiscope can co-exist is paramount for well-being, contribution, and impact.

This blended avatar as an HSWOC brings enormous depth of diversity, has the capacity for far reaching endeavors, and can be a competitive advantage on any team. Rising above the noise with strategic leadership skill development, using the philosophy of positive psychology, and the commitment towards self-actualizing my authentic truth are some of the core principles I have used to stay at my personal best. Leading with conscious awareness and from heartfelt purpose takes intentionality and through social conditioning it becomes easy to drift from our core essence and hard to peel away the trappings of society that distract us from who we truly are.

As the world is calling for more awakened leaders, I know we must use our unique skills to elevate and educate the mission-driven causes that transform consciousness.

Come join this fun and engaging segment that brings awareness and inspiration to being personally defined and a pattern interrupt! I look forward to seeing you there!
